Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the University of Aarhus website:

- Go to www.au.dk/en
- Under Information for: choose Students.
- Click on International Student Exchange.
- Now Studies and Courses, and Courses in English.
- Choose Course Catalog under your Subject. *The next page that comes up differs from subject to subject, so look for course listings or course descriptions. You may need to specify your major again.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at the University of Aarhus have taken courses in science, law, economics, political science, psychology, theology, and more! The university also offers a free pre-semester Danish language and culture course for international students.

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
