Location
Antwerp, situated in the northern part of Belgium, is habited by over 470,000 people and is made up of many fascinating neighbourhoods and districts. The port of Antwerp is the 2nd largest in Europe.

Belgium is known for its friendly people, stunning architecture, and incredible cuisine. Belgium has three official languages: Dutch in the north, French in the south, and German along the east border. Situated between France and Holland, Belgium is about the size of Maryland. A train network connects all of Belgium. The country is full of canals, medieval art cities, rolling hills, and countless castles. The capital, Brussels, is home to both the European Union and NATO.

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Universiteit Antwerpen website:

- Go to www.ua.ac.be
- Click on English.
- Under Go to at the bottom left of the page, click on Faculties & Institutes
- Departments (Faculties) will be listed. To see department pages in English, click on the English link next to the Department’s name
- Accessing courses varies by department page.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at Universiteit Antwerpen have taken courses in history, psychology, mathematics, computer sciences, humanities, natural sciences, and physics. Courses instructed in English are economics, law, and literature. Dutch language courses are offered for two weeks before every semester!

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
