Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at the University of Bergen have taken courses in the arts, humanities, law, mathematics, natural sciences, medicine, psychology, the social sciences, and more! The university also offers free Norwegian courses as part of their orientation program!

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the University of Bergen website:

• Go to www.uib.no/info/english
• Click International Students from the right column.
• Click on Course/Degrees from the top tabs.
• Now select your Major/Faculty from the right column and go to Courses.
• Click on the course title for course descriptions.

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
