Germany's population is around 82 million, which is a third of the U.S. population, but the land is about half the size of Texas. Germany is one of the oldest countries in Europe with a history beginning with the Romans! Bochum is an industrial town historically, but still has a lot of parks and green spots for sport.

Did you Know?
Ruhr-Universität Bochum was the first university to be founded in post-war Federal Republic of Germany in year 1962. It was officially opened in 1965 as the first university in the Ruhr area. The university is future oriented, reflected in its focus on neurosciences, medical technology, and IT security.

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Ruhr-Universität Bochum website:

- Go to http://www.ruhr-uni-bochum.de/index_en.htm
- Select English on the top right corner.
- Click on Faculties from the left column.
- From here you may choose your major under faculties.
- The different subject areas will lead you to separate pages.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at RUB have taken courses in humanities, social science, civil/mechanical engineering, economics, natural sciences, mathematics, information technology, geosciences, and more! Language/Culture Orientation sessions for incoming students, are available for 300 EUR.

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
