Location
USB is located in Bologna, Italy, a city of around 400,000. Almost 1/4 of the population are students.

Italy has almost always had a major impact on the world, from being the seat of the Roman Empire to housing the heart of the Catholic Church, to being a fashion capital. Italy as we know it only became a unified country in 1861.

Did you Know?
The Università degli Studi di Bologna was founded in 1088, and is the oldest university in the Western world. It has one of the largest exchange student populations in Europe, and the Erasmus Student Association organizes many activities for exchange students. Bologna itself is famous for its medieval historic center, and cuisine.

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Università degli Studi di Bologna website:
*in English
  - Go to www.eng.unibo.it
  - Click on Academic Courses in the top left corner and Degree Courses.
  - Choose your Subject or All and Year from the drop-down menus.
  - Select your subject or if you pushed All, click on Complete list of teaching activities.
  - Click on the course title for more details.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at Bologna University have taken courses in agriculture, economics, history, industrial chemistry, engineering, foreign literature, political science, and more! The university also offers a free Italian language course for foreign students.

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
