Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the University of Helsinki website:

- Go to www.helsinki.fi/university/
- Click on Studying, Services & Student Life from the left column.
- Now select Study in English on the left, then select Course in English.
- From there scroll down to choose your department under Links to Courses by Organizing Body.
- Click on the course title to find course descriptions.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at the University of Helsinki have taken courses in theology, law, medicine, the arts, science, education, the social sciences, agriculture and forestry, veterinary medicine, and more! The university also offers an orientation course for incoming students.

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
