Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Tartu University website:

- Go to www.ut.ee/index.aw/ set_lang_id=2
- Under Studies for International Students select Baltic Studies
- Select courses in English
- Select list of courses taught in English
- Select Bachelor's degree program and here.
- From here click on your course and the most current year at the top for listed courses and descriptions

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at Tartu University have taken courses in social sciences, biology/medicine, mathematics, English, Russian, computer science, law, geography, and more!

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
