Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at Vilnius University have taken courses in archeology, ancient history, arts, business, humanities, math and computer science, media and communications, sciences, theology and philosophy, and more!

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Vilnius University website:

- Go to www.vu.lt
- Click on Studies at the top.
- Choose Courses in Foreign Languages tab on the left of the screen.
- Follow your subject area and click on course codes for descriptions.

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
