OSU-Mexico Liaison Office

The OSU-Mexico Liaison Office was established in 2006 as part of the School of International Studies within International Education and Outreach. The main mission of the Office is to pursue and support academic, cultural and business exchange programs between the Oklahoma State University System and the country of Mexico. It provides a university-wide focus to expand international opportunities in instruction, research and outreach for individuals and organizations seeking greater understanding and involvement in international affairs. OSU is committed to the internationalization of higher education as well as building better relationships with Mexico.
